Take time to work - it is the price of success.

Take time to think - it is the source of power.

Take time to play - it is the secret of perpetual youth.

Take time to read - it is the foundation of wisdom.

Take time to be friendly - it is the road to happiness.

Take time to dream - it is hitching your wagon to a star.

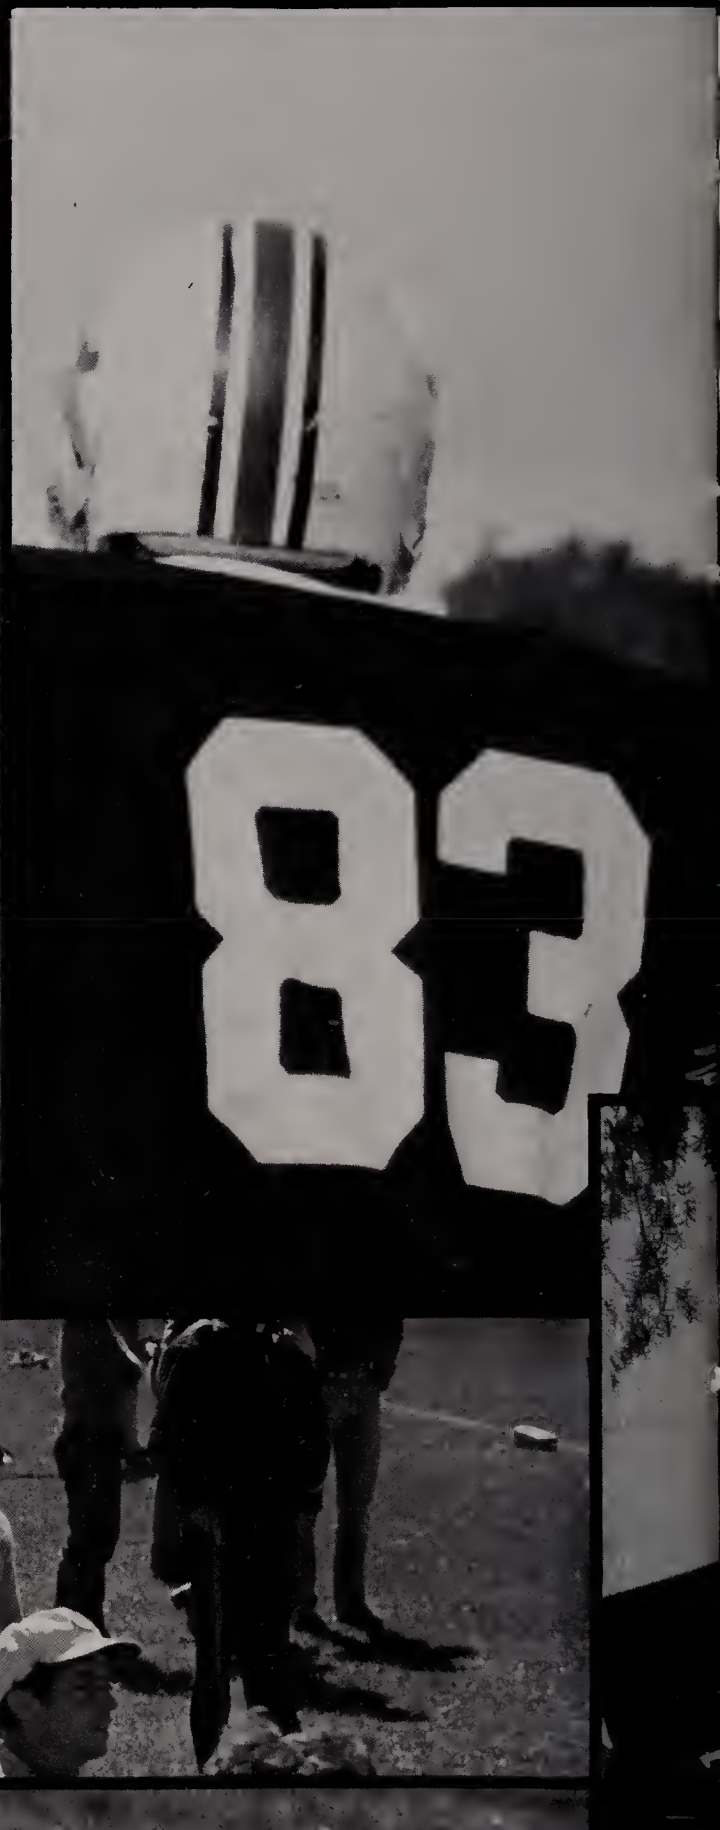

TOWNHOUSE TERRACE

Take time to love and be loved
- it is the privilege of the Gods.

Take time to look around- the day
is too short to be selfish.

Take time to laugh - it is the music of the soul.

-An Old Irish Prayer

"Yes, we are in college. Why do you ask?"

THINK ABOUT THIS

One night a man had a dream
He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord
Across the sky flashed scenes from his life
For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand-one belonging to him- the other to the Lord
When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand
He noticed that many times along the path of his life, there was only one set of footprints
He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life
Lord, You said that once I decided to follow You, You'd walk with me all the way
But, I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints
I don't understand why in times when I needed you most,
you would leave me
The Lord replied, My precious, precious child
I love you and I would never, never leave you during your times of trials and suffering
When you see only one set of footprints, It was then that I

Worldwide 52 Given First Big Hug in U.S. joy, relief

From Wire Services

LONDON — World leaders expressed happiness and relief yesterday at the release of the 52 Americans.

Pope John Paul II received the news with "joy." The French said they were "delighted." UN Secretary General Kurt Waldheim expressed "tremendous satisfaction" and British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher said she was "glad."

Americans' release would be a relief to four Britons imprisoned in Iran.

NEWBURGH, N.Y. — America's hug of welcome began at Stewart Airport yesterday afternoon and continued through 17 miles of joyous citizens, who stood cheering the bus caravan carrying the freed hostages to West Point.

At the airport, where the military jets of the returned captives touched down at 4 p.m., tight-lipped and weary, the hostages and their families were greeted by a large crowd of onlookers.

with a generous slice of the American lifestyle that had been denied them for 14½ months.

"It's their hotel," said Lee Curtis, assistant manager of the hotel, before the released hostages could do anything.

"There was great rejoicing here at the time upon learning the news of the hostages' release," the Rev. Romeo Palumbo told reporters.

He said the Pope, who repeatedly condemned the seizure of the Americans, "did not spare effort to put an end to this sad and painful ordeal, and is now happy that the hostages are finally freed and are returning to their homes."

Thatcher welcomed the release of the hostages and said it "will augur well for the future of the world."

COMMENCEMENT

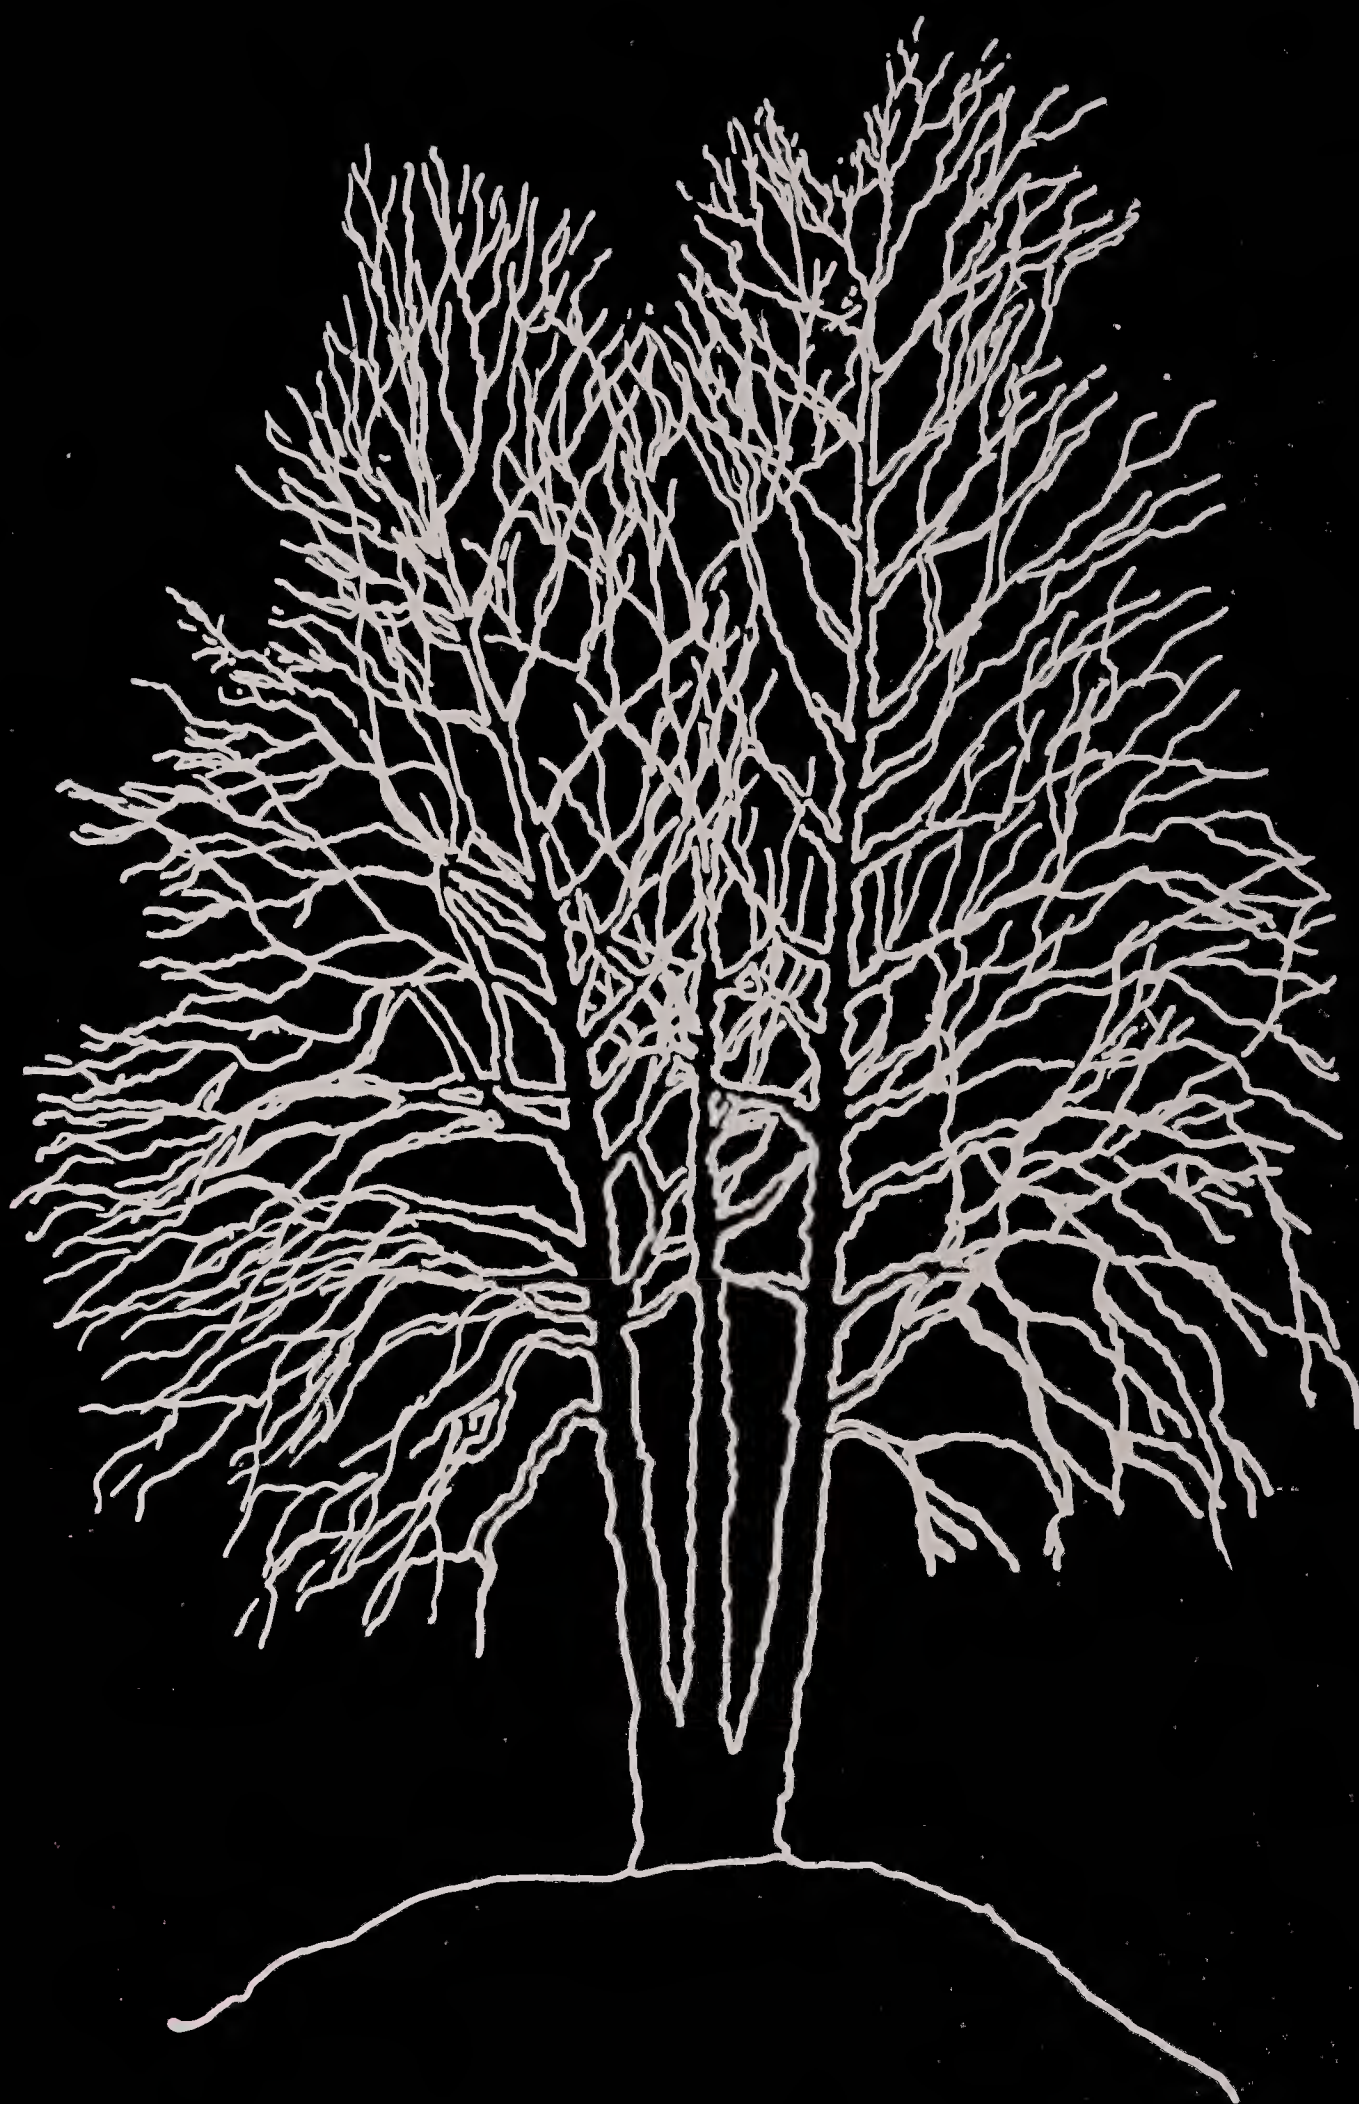

MAY 16

If I had my life to live over:

I'd like to make more mistakes next time

I'd relax.

I would be sillier than I've been this trip.

I would take fewer things seriously.

I would take more chances.

I would climb more mountains and swim more rivers

I would eat more ice cream and less beans.

I would perhaps have more actual troubles, but . . .

I'd have fewer imaginary ones.

You see, I'm one of those people who live sensibly and sanely hour after hour, day after day. Oh, I've had my moments, and if I had it to do over again, I'd have more of them. In fact, I'd try to have nothing else. Just moments, one after another, instead of living so many years ahead of each day. I've been one of those persons who never goes anywhere without a thermometer, a hot water bottle, a raincoat, and a parachute. If I had to do it again, I would travel lighter than I have.

If I had my life to live over:

I would start barefoot earlier in the spring, and stay that way later in the fall.

I would go to more dances.

I would ride more merry-go-rounds

I would pick more daisies . . .
